

TROWBRIDGE FRIENDS LINK

At the Odeon cinema some of us went to see Charlie's Angels it was very good, and everyone enjoyed themselves.

One Wednesday some of us went to the Arc Theatre in Trowbridge Collage to see we will Rock you. We all had a great time and it was a lot of fun, and all the students did a great job with their acting.

The Thursday before Christmas some of us went to Stourhead to see the lights. We have made a collage of the photos. It was a very wet day so Ishmael and Cath prayed for the weather for no rain. The evening was dry to walk round the trail and everyone had a lovely time. Thanks to Myles for driving the minibus.

In February we are having a party at Bethesda church hall, Newtown in Trowbridge please bring some cakes to share. You are welcome to bring a friend who is not a member, cost £5.

The Trowbridge pool is likely to be closed until the summer so we are going to go swimming in Bradford on Avon once a month, returning to Sainsburys in Trowbridge for lunch and going to the Bay Tree café for lunch on the other Tuesday. Please take note of the new arrangements on the activities page and let Cath know if this works for you. Any suggestions are welcome.

We are planning a walk in the grounds of Lacock abbey to see the snowdrops, going by bus from Trowbridge. This trip needs to be prebooked so that Cath can get the group price from the National Trust.

We are making another trip to Bradford on Avon to see the musical 'Joseph and his technicolour dreamcoat' at the St Margaret's hall in the town. The D1 bus runs in the evening arriving in Bradford at 6.30pm and leaving at 9.41pm. so this would involve some waiting around as the performance is 7.30-9pm.

Abba Mania returns to the Civic Centre on March 7th. We will not be going as a group so if you are an Abba fan you will need to book your own tickets.

If you would like to take part in any of the activities listed on the next page please telephone Cath so that she can plan it. She will contact you to confirm that the activity is going ahead and that she is expecting you.
